pottery barn kids

Pottery barn kids in Deer Park IL, is working with St. Jude to raise money for the children's hospital. Myself Allison, and my son Zach are trying to raise $1000 to contribute. I work at pottery barn Kids and we love this campaign. Pottery barn kids is able to give you a receipt from your donation for tax purposes. We hope you are able to help us out and reach our goal. Checks can be made out to: Pottery barn kids. My daughter Mia attends Creative Playtime as well.

Thanks,
Allison Pallone
